

Topic: Five team building exercises for small business

Team building is just as important for small businesses than it is for organisations with a large workforce.

Because the success of the business is in the hands of so few, it is imperative that all staff can work well together for a common goal.

Here are five team building exercises ideal for small businesses ...

1. Risk Reward

- Focus on strategy, risk taking, trust, team work and process improvement
- An indoor program over 2-3 hours for smaller budgets

2. Art in a Day

- Focus on time management, strategy, negotiation and creative skills
- Run both indoors and outdoors from 2-4 hours

3. City Scramble

- Focus on strategy, communication, navigation and local knowledge
- Presents outdoor team building activities at low cost

4. Bikes for Tykes

- Focus on corporate social responsibility, communication, leadership, team work and delegation
- Powerful charity program effective in either indoor or outdoor locations

5. Mission Impossible

- Focus on problem solving, strategy, time management and team work
- Elements of surprise, adventure and fun in an outdoor program over 2-3 hours
